COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs,

-against-

BRIDGE ELECTRIC OF NJ LLC and HALLMARK ELECTRIC, LLC,

Defendants.

-----X
Plaintiffs, Trustees of Building Trades Educational Benefit Fund, The Building Trades Annuity Benefit Fund, the Building Trades Welfare Benefit Fund, and the Building Trades Pension Fund, (hereinafter referred to as "Funds"), by their attorneys Barnes, Iaccarino & Shepherd L.L.P., allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This action is based on the provisions of Section 301 of the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947 (hereinafter referred to as the "Taft-Hartley Act") 29 U.S.C. Section 185 and on Section 502(a)(3) and Section 515 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, as amended (hereinafter referred to as "ERISA") (29 U.S.C. Section 1132(a)(3) and 29 U.S.C. 1145).
2. Jurisdiction is conferred upon this court by Section 301 of the Taft-Hartley Act (29 U.S.C. Section 185) and Sections 502(e)(1) and 502(f) of ERISA (29 U.S.C.

Sections 1132(e)(1) and 1132(f) and derivative jurisdiction is contained in 28 U.S.C. Sections 1331 and 1337.

3. Venue properly lies in this District under the provisions of 502(e)(2) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132(e)(2)) and Section 301 of the Taft-Hartley Act (29 U.S.C. Section 185) and 28 U.S.C. Section 1391(b).
4. This action is brought by the respective Trustees of the Funds in their fiduciary capacities for injunctive relief, monetary damages and other equitable relief under ERISA and for breach of a labor contract to secure performance by an Employer of specific statutory and contractual obligations to submit the required monetary contributions and/or reports to the Plaintiffs.

PARTIES

5. The Plaintiffs Trustees are, at all relevant times, the fiduciaries of jointly administered multi-employer, labor management trust funds as defined by Section 3(21)(A) and Section 502(a)(3) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. 9. Upon information and belief, BRIDGE ELECTRIC is a for profit foreign corporation doing business in the State of New York with its principal place of business located at 15 High Street, Red Bank, NJ 07701.
10. Upon information and belief, the Defendant, HALLMARK ELECTRIC, LLC, hereinafter "HALLMARK" at all relevant times, was and is an Employer within the meaning of Sections 3(5) and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Sections 1002(5) and 1145) and was and still is an Employer in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 301 of the Taft-Hartley Act (29 U.S.C. Section 185).
11. Upon information and belief, HALLMARK is a for profit foreign corporation doing business in the State of New York with its principal place of business located at 15 Elm Street, Old Saybrook, CT 06475.

CAUSES FOR RELIEF
AS AND FOR A FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

12. BRIDGE ELECTRIC executed a Collective Bargaining Agreement and was and still is a party to a Collective Bargaining Agreement (hereinafter a C.B.A.) with the Union by virtue of membership in an Association. The C.B.A. and/or Trust Indenture requires BRIDGE ELECTRIC to submit contributions reports setting forth the hours that each of its employees worked and the amount of contributions due pursuant to the rate schedules set forth in the C.B.A. for all work performed by its employees covered by the C.B.A. and to remit such monetary contributions in accordance with the participation agreement or C.B.A. and the rules and regulations established in the Trust Indenture.

13. Upon information and belief, as a result of work performed by the individual employees of BRIDGE ELECTRIC pursuant to the C.B.A., there became due and owing to the Funds from the Employer's fringe benefit contributions.
14. BRIDGE ELECTRIC has failed and refused to remit to the Funds benefit contributions due and owing under the C.B.A. and in accordance with the Trust Indentures in the amount of $20,879.68 owed for the period of April 1, 2016 through September 30, 2016, pursuant to an audit.
15. BRIDGE ELECTRIC failure, refusal or neglect to remit the proper contributions to the Plaintiffs constitutes a violation of the C.B.A. between BRIDGE ELECTRIC and the Union wherein the Funds are third party beneficiaries.
16. Pursuant to the C.B.A. and the Policy for Collection of Delinquent Contributions upon BRIDGE ELECTRIC's failure to pay contributions and they become due, the employer is obligated to the pay the following: the additional amount of twenty (20%) percent of the total sum of contributions due and unpaid as liquidated damages; interest; attorneys' fees at the hourly rate charged to the Funds for such services and all costs incurred in initiating the court action for the collection of delinquent contributions.
17. Accordingly, BRIDGE ELECTRIC is liable to Plaintiffs for contribution reports and unpaid benefit contributions in the minimum amount of $20,879.68 plus liquidated damages, interest, court costs, and attorneys' fees.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

18. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and really each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "17" of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.
19. Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1145) requires employers to pay fringe benefit contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of the C.B.A. and Trust Indentures.
20. BRIDGE ELECTRIC has failed to pay or timely pay the fringe benefit contributions to Plaintiffs owed as a result of work performed by individual employees of BRIDGE ELECTRIC. Such failure to make timely payment constitutes a violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1145).
21. Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132) provides that upon finding of an Employer violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. 1145) which requires employers to pay fringe benefit contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of collective bargaining agreements, the Court shall award payment to a Plaintiffs' Funds of the unpaid fringe benefit contributions, plus statutory damages and interest on the unpaid principal amount due both computed at a rate set forth in the United States Internal Revenue code (26 U.S.C. Section 6621), together with reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and disbursements incurred in the action.
22. The failure to pay has injured the Funds by delaying investment of contributions and causing unnecessary administrative costs for the Funds and has injured the participants and beneficiaries and other contributing employers of the benefit plan in the form of lower benefits and higher contributions amounts.

23. Accordingly, BRIDGE ELECTRIC is liable to Plaintiffs under the C.B.A. and any Trust Indenture concerning the payment of fringe benefit contributions and under Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Sections 1132 and 1145) due to the failure to pay contributions when they are due.

24. Accordingly, BRIDGE ELECTRIC is liable to the Funds in the minimum amount of $20,879.68 in unpaid contributions plus liquidated damages, interest, reasonable attorney's fees, costs and disbursements in this action pursuant to Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132).

AS AND FOR A THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

25. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and re-allege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "24" of this Complaint as if set forth at length herein.

26. Pursuant to ERISA, the participation agreement, the C.B.A. and/or Trust Indenture, BRIDGE ELECTRIC is required to timely submit current fringe benefit contributions and reports to Plaintiffs.

27. Upon information and belief, BRIDGE ELECTRIC has in the past failed to timely submit current fringe benefit contributions and reports to Plaintiffs and is in breach of the statutory obligations under ERISA, the participation agreement, the C.B.A. and/or Trust Indenture. During the course of the instant action, additional contributions and/or delinquency charges may become due and owing. If BRIDGE ELECTRIC fails to pay the additional contributions and/or delinquency charges those additional amounts should be included plus interest as part of this action, at the time of trial or judgment, whichever is later.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

28. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and re-allege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs “1” through “27” of this complaint as if set forth at length therein.
29. The financial integrity of the Plaintiffs’ Funds and the allocation of proper eligibility and credit to the members are determined and are based upon prompt and accurate remittance of reports and fringe benefit contributions from the Employer.
30. Plaintiffs’ Funds have no adequate remedy at law to ensure that the Employer will adhere to their continuing statutory and contractual obligations.
31. The failure of BRIDGE ELECTRIC to promptly remit payment will cause Plaintiffs immediate and irreparable injury unless the Employer and its officers, agents and servants are enjoined from failing, refusing or neglecting to submit the required current monetary contributions and reports to Plaintiffs.
32. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction enjoining BRIDGE ELECTRIC from any further or future violations of this or subsequent collective bargaining agreements with Plaintiffs’ Union, as such agreements apply to the obligations of BRIDGE ELECTRIC to Plaintiffs herein.

CAUSES FOR RELIEF
AS AND FOR A FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

33. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and really each and every allegation contained in paragraphs “1” through “32” of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

34. HALLMARK executed a C.B.A. with the Union and/or was and still is a party to a C.B.A. with the Union or by virtue of membership in an Association. The C.B.A. and/or Trust Indenture requires HALLMARK to submit contributions reports setting forth the hours that each of its employees worked and the amount of contributions due pursuant to the rate schedules set forth in the C.B.A. for all work performed by its employees covered by the participation agreement or C.B.A. and to remit such monetary contributions in accordance with the participation agreement or C.B.A. and the rules and regulations established in the Trust Indenture.
35. Upon information and belief, as a result of work performed by the individual employees of HALLMARK pursuant to the C.B.A., there became due and owing to the Funds from the Employer's fringe benefit contributions.
36. HALLMARK has failed and refused to comply with an audit of its book and record in accordance with C.B.A and Collection Policy for the period February 1, 2014 to date to the Funds.
37. HALLMARK failure, refusal or neglect to comply with an audit which constitutes a violation of the C.B.A. between HALLMARK and the Union wherein the Funds are third party beneficiaries.
38. Pursuant to the C.B.A. and the Policy for Collection of Delinquent Contributions upon HALLMARK's failure to pay contributions and they become due, the employer is obligated to pay the following: the additional amount of twenty (20%) percent of the total sum of contributions due and unpaid as liquidated damages; interest; attorneys' fees at the hourly rate charged to the Funds for such services and all costs incurred in initiating the court action for the collection of delinquent contributions if found after the conducting of an audit.

39. Accordingly, HALLMARK must comply with an audit plus any contributing liquidated damages, interest, court costs, and attorneys' fees.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

40. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "39" of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

41. In accordance with ERISA Section 209 (29 U.S.C. 1059), HALLMARK is responsible for maintaining the books and records sufficient to allow the Funds to conduct an audit and its failure to do so constitutes a violation of ERISA.

42. Section 515 of ERISA, (29 U.S.C. Section 1145) requires employers to pay fringe benefit contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Collective Bargaining Agreements and Trust Indentures.

43. HALLMARK who has failed, neglected, or refused to pay or timely pay the fringe benefit contributions and/or submit the contribution reports owed as a result of work performed by individual employees of the Employer constitutes a violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1145).

44. Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132) provides that upon a finding of an employer violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1145), which requires employers to pay fringe benefit contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of collective bargaining agreements, the Court shall award payment to the Funds of the unpaid fringe benefit contributions, plus interest and statutory damages on the unpaid principal amount due, both computed at a rate set forth in the United States Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Section 6621), together with reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and disbursements incurred in the action.

45. The failure, neglect, and/or refusal to permit an audit and cooperate with an audit by the Funds, has injured the Funds and Union by delaying the investment of contributions and causing unnecessary administrative costs for the Funds and Union and has injured the participants and beneficiaries and other contributing employers of the benefit plan in the form of lower benefits and higher contribution amounts.

46. Accordingly, HALLMARK is liable to Plaintiffs under the C.B.A and any Trust Indenture concerning the payment of fringe benefit contributions and under Sections 209, 502, and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Sections 1059, 1132, and 1145) due to the failure, neglect, and/or refusal to permit an audit including its payroll records and to pay the contributions that are due and owing.

47. Accordingly, HALLMARK must permit and cooperate in the conducting of an audit for the period February 1, 2014 to date, and is liable to the Funds and Union in an amount to be determined by the audit which shall include liquidated damages, interest and reasonable audit fees and attorneys' fees pursuant to Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132).

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

48. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and really each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "47" of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

50. HALLMARK has failed to pay or timely pay the fringe benefit contributions to Plaintiffs owed as a result of work performed by individual employees of HALLMARK. Such failure to make timely payment constitutes a violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1145).

51. Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132) provides that upon finding of an Employer violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. 1145) which requires employers to pay fringe benefit contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of collective bargaining agreements, the Court shall award payment to a Plaintiffs' Funds of the unpaid fringe benefit contributions, plus statutory damages and interest on the unpaid principal amount due both computed at a rate set forth in the United States Internal Revenue code (26 U.S.C. Section 6621), together with reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and disbursements incurred in the action.

52. The failure to pay has injured the Funds by delaying investment of contributions and causing unnecessary administrative costs for the Funds and has injured the participants and beneficiaries and other contributing employers of the benefit plan in the form of lower benefits and higher contributions amounts.

53. Accordingly, HALLMARK is liable to Plaintiffs under the C.B.A. and any Trust Indenture concerning the payment of fringe benefit contributions and under Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Sections 1132 and 1145) due to the failure to pay contributions when they are due.

54. Accordingly, HALLMARK is liable to the Funds in the minimum amount of $20,879.68 in unpaid contributions plus liquidated damages, interest, reasonable attorney's fees, costs and disbursements in this action pursuant to Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132).

AS AND FOR A EIGHTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

55. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and re-allege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "54" of this Complaint as if set forth at length herein.

56. Pursuant to ERISA, the participation agreement, the C.B.A. and/or Trust Indenture, HALLMARK is required to timely submit current fringe benefit contributions and reports to Plaintiffs.

57. Upon information and belief, HALLMARK has in the past failed to timely submit current fringe benefit contributions and reports to Plaintiffs and is in breach of the statutory obligations under ERISA, the participation agreement, the C.B.A. and/or Trust Indenture. During the course of the instant action, additional contributions and/or delinquency charges may become due and owing. If HALLMARK fails to pay the additional contributions and/or delinquency charges those additional amounts should be included plus interest as part of this action, at the time of trial or judgment, whichever is later.

AS AND FOR A NINTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

58. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and re-allege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "57" of this complaint as if set forth at length therein.

59. The financial integrity of the Plaintiffs' Funds and the allocation of proper eligibility and credit to the members are determined and are based upon prompt and accurate remittance of reports and fringe benefit contributions from the Employer.

60. Plaintiffs' Funds have no adequate remedy at law to ensure that the Employers will adhere to their continuing statutory and contractual obligations.

61. The failure of HALLMARK to promptly remit payment will cause Plaintiffs immediate and irreparable injury unless the Employer and its officers, agents and servants are enjoined from failing, refusing or neglecting to submit the required current monetary contributions and reports to Plaintiffs.

62. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction enjoining HALLMARK from any further or future violations of this or subsequent collective bargaining agreements with Plaintiffs' Union, as such agreements apply to the obligations of HALLMARK to Plaintiffs herein.

AS AND FOR A TENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF AGAINST DEFENDANTS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS UNDER
ERISA 502 AND 515, 29 USC 1132 AND 1145
(Single Employer Count)

63. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "62" of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

64. Upon information and belief, BRIDGE ELECTRIC, and HALLMARK share common office space, common officers and employees.

65. Defendants, as a single employer, are Employers bound by the terms of the C.B.A. and trust indentures of the Plaintiffs, and each defendant's individual obligations.

66. Defendants constitute a “single employer” under ERISA and each are personally obligated to make contributions to the Funds.
67. Under federal common law, the corporate veil of the Defendants should be pierced so that each defendant is liable for the debts of each other.
68. Accordingly, the Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs under the collective bargaining agreement and any Trust Indenture concerning the payment of fringe benefit contributions under Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Sections 1132 and 1145) due to each defendant’s, failure to pay contributions when they are due.
69. The failure to pay contributions to the Funds violates the terms of the collective bargaining agreements and the Trust Agreement, and pursuant to those agreements and Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA, the Funds are entitled to delinquent contributions, interest, liquidated damages, attorneys’ fees, and costs.
70. By virtue of the single employer relationship, Defendants are each jointly and several liable to the Funds for all amounts due and owing pursuant to the collective bargaining agreement.
71. Accordingly, the Defendants are jointly and severally liable to the Funds in the minimum amount of $20,879.68 as well as a delinquency found in through an audit of HALLMARK plus interest, reasonable attorney’s fees, collection fees and costs and disbursements in this action.

DEFENDANTS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS UNDER
ERISA 502 AND 515, 29 USC 1132 AND 1145
(Successor Liability Count)

72. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and re-allege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs “1” through “71” of this Complaint as if set forth at length herein.
73. BRIDGE ELECTRIC continues the business or performs the same function as HALLMARK.
74. BRIDGE ELECTRIC employs the same employees as HALLMARK.
75. HALLMARK and BRIDGE ELECTRIC are owned or controlled by the same individual or individuals.
76. HALLMARK and BRIDGE ELECTRIC have the same suppliers and/or customers; and/or use the same equipment.
77. BRIDGE ELECTRIC uses the goodwill and other intangibles of HALLMARK.
78. BRIDGE ELECTRIC as a successor to, and a mere continuation of HALLMARK is liable to Plaintiffs under the Participation Agreements and any Trust Indenture concerning the payment of fringe benefit contributions and under Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Sections 1132 and 1145) due to HALLMARK failure to pay contributions when they are due.
79. Accordingly, the Defendants are liable to the Funds in the minimum amount of $20,879.68 as well as a delinquency found in through an audit of HALLMARK plus interest, reasonable attorney’s fees, collection fees and costs and disbursements in this action.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully pray for Judgment against Defendants as follows:
